Application Guide for International Students Admission to Japanese Language Course

Privacy Policy

Please note that personal information on your application documents that were submitted at the time of your application, such as your name and address, shall be used for the following:

1. Sending an examination card, a letter of notification, and a set of documents required for the enrollment procedures;
2. Providing information necessary for successful applicants to start campus life;
3. Producing various statistical materials in which individuals are not identified; and
4. Applying for a Certificate of Eligibility (university will submit an application on behalf of the applicants).

1. Introducing Kindai University Japanese Language Course

The Kindai University Japanese Language Course is a preparatory course that mainly provides Japanese and English language education to international students who want to enter a Japanese university (mainly Kindai University undergraduate schools or graduate schools). As a general rule, students taking the Japanese Language Course are able to use the university's library or other facilities for study purposes, like general students of the university. This means that this course is ideal for international students wishing to use the campus to prepare for the entrance exams of Kindai University. Students taking the Kindai University Japanese Language Course work towards passing the Kindai University entrance examination for international students, which is offered in October and in February of the following year.

* Those who are staying in Japan under a 'Temporary Visitor' status of residence shall not be regarded as residing in Japan.

3. Requirements for applicants

- (1) Applicants must be non-Japanese who either have completed 12 years of school education outside Japan or will have completed such education by March 2017 when applying for admission to the Spring Semester (April 2017) or by August 2017 for admission to the Fall Semester (September 2017).
- (2) Applicants who are recognized by Kindai University as holding qualifications equivalent or superior to those specified in the above (1).
- (3) As a general rule, applicants must be eligible to obtain or renew a 'college student' status as provided for under Japan's Immigration Control and Refugee Recognition Act after being accepted into the university.

* Applicants wondering whether they can acquire or renew their residential status after passing and entering the Kindai University Japanese Language Course should contact the Immigration Bureau in Japan for additional information prior to submitting the application for entrance to the University.

- (4) In principle, applicants must have studied Japanese for at least six months at the time of application (either inside Japan or outside Japan) and have achieved either level N5 or higher of the Japanese Language Proficiency Test, or level F or higher of the J. Test (Test of Practical Japanese).
- (5) Applicants who have previously been enrolled in any other Japanese language institution in Japan for over one year in the past cannot apply for the course.

Note: The presence or absence of the qualification for application is reviewed based on the submitted application documents. All submitted application documents and the entrance examination fee are returned when an applicant is not granted admission as a result of the review.

4. Application procedures

(1) How to apply

- ① Download the Japanese Language Course Application Guide for International Students Admission, "Japanese Language Course Application Card B" and a set of prescribed forms from <http://www.kindai.ac.jp/international-exchange/study-abroad/japanese-entrance-exam.html>
- ② By using the Japanese Language Course Application Card B, please transfer the entrance examination fee from a banking institution in Japan (excluding the Japan Post bank).
- ③ Please send the completed forms with necessary certificates or documents shown on page 20 by acceptance-recorded mail (Tokuteikiroku Yubin).

The guarantor residing in Japan should send all application documents by mail to the Center for International Affairs, Kindai University, Higashiosaka Campus.

The application documents should arrive by the last day of the application period. No application shall be accepted if it is brought to the Center for International Affairs in person. Even if the entrance examination fee is transferred within the application period, the application will not be accepted unless all application documents arrive by the last day of the application period.

We will not under any circumstances accept documents that arrive after the application period.

(2) Entrance examination fee: 20,000 yen

Applicants must fill out the entrance examination fee remittance form provided by the university and use this to transfer the appropriate amount in "Japanese yen" by "telegraphic transfer" from banking institution in Japan (excluding the Japan Post Bank). The remittance from abroad is not allowed. Be sure to keep the receipt.

*As a general rule, once application documents and entrance examination fees (including various expenses such as bank transfer fee, etc.) are received, they will not be returned to applicants.

Please transfer it by the applicant's name. The transfer by the other's name cannot be accepted.

(4) Important Note

We will not bear any responsibility for delay nor non-delivery of the documents incurred through postal service errors.

5. Number of Students Admitted

Spring Semester (April 2017): 15

Fall Semester (September 2017): 15

6. Selection methods

- (1) Selection will be conducted based on the submitted application documents.
- (2) When necessary, an applicant and / or guarantor may be called for confirmation or required to have an interview.
- (3) The acceptance or rejection of an application will take into account all of the factors above.

7. About a guarantor

- (1) If you want to apply for or enter the Kindai University Japanese Language Course, you need one guarantor.
- (2) A guarantor must be residing in Japan and someone who can promptly and reliably make contact with the applicant and the Center for International Affairs. Also, a guarantor must be the one who earns one's own living, guarantees fidelity of an enrollee during the stay in Japan, and fulfills the responsibility of the guarantor. Accordingly, a student is not qualified to become a guarantor.
- (3) In principle, it is not permissible for one person to become a guarantor for more than one student.
- (4) The financial sponsor can be a person different from the guarantor.

8. Curriculum details

- (1) Students are divided into two classes based on their Japanese language level. They must take a placement test on the designated day before the semester starts.

(2) Course details

In the Japanese Language Course, students learn Japanese grammar, kanji, and vocabulary for one year, aiming at the mastery of four skills (reading textbooks, listening to lectures, writing reports, and presenting ideas) necessary for campus life at Kindai University. In addition, the classes on how to take entrance examinations (for Kindai University in particular) and Japanese conversation classes shall also be provided.

Since students in the course aim to enter a Japanese university (Kindai University in particular) the following academic year, the course also offers the common subjects, English and the study of Japanese history, culture, and politics, as preparation for the entrance examinations they will face.

(3) Study terms

Spring Semester: One year from April, Fall Semester: One year from September. However, the period of study may be extended for a period of up to one year if it is considered particularly necessary for educational purposes.

(4) Completion conditions

Students who complete the following requirements will be granted certification attesting to their completion of this course:

Students must be enrolled in the course for one year, complete all subjects and pass the final examination. Students must satisfy the attendance requirements. Students whose attendance is inadequate will not be eligible to pass.

(5) Acceptance into Kindai University

If students who have completed this course wish to go on to undergraduate schools or graduate schools at Kindai University, they must take the entrance examination for international students or other exams. In addition, students applying for graduate schools must have bachelor's degrees. Students going on to graduate or undergraduate schools at Kindai University after completion of the Japanese Language Course will be granted a deduction of 50,000 yen from enrollment fees on entering their course.

- ① As soon as the enrollment procedures are completed, the university will issue an entrance permit.
- ② This entrance permit has limited term of validity. When the successful applicants are unable to obtain passport or visa due to some reason and are not able to enter Japan, the entrance permission will be canceled.

15. Cancellation of enrollment

Applicants who have completed enrollment procedures and decide to decline an offer of admission and claim a refund of fees already paid must submit a "request for the return of the paid-in fees upon refusal of entrance to school" according to the dates shown in the table below. After the related procedures are completed, your paid-in school expenses, except the entrance fee, will be transferred to your bank account. The above refund request form is enclosed in the entrance procedure package.

About one week after your refund request form arrives, a letter of receipt will be sent to you. If the letter does not arrive, please contact the following contact address.

You will be contacted again at a later date regarding the timing of school expenses to be refunded after all completed documents have been received. The refund will be transferred to your bank account. We do not remit the refund overseas.

(Note 1)

When a certificate of Eligibility is not issued to those residing outside Japan, the university will return the paid-in school fees (including the entrance fee). Even though you obtain the certificate of Eligibility, if you are not able to enter Japan, the university will return the paid-in school fees except the entrance fee. In both cases, you must submit "the request for the return of the paid-in fees upon refusal of entrance to school" according to the dates shown in the table below.

(Note 2)

We do not accept the refund request form once the deadline expires.

16. Living Expenses

Living costs in Japan including accommodation, meals, and other incidental costs, excluding tuition, are estimated at around 100,000 yen per month.

As a general rule, Japanese Language Course students are not allowed to do part-time jobs. They take classes every day and they must prepare and review their lessons. They don't have time doing part-time jobs. They need to talk with parents and a guarantor well and prepare the living expenses before they start to study in Japan.

17. Accommodation

As a general rule, all students are responsible for organizing their own living arrangements. There are many single-room apartments and other suitable student accommodation in the area around Kindai University, and a wide selection of properties is available according to cost and preference.

More information is available from the university website (<http://www.kindai.ac.jp>). The office of student affairs can provide introductions to recommended real estate agents who deal in properties suited to international students.
